BUILDING YOU INTERNATIONAL CAREER

How do I build an international career?
Who can support me in this process?
What kinds of strategies are necessary?

During this presentation, Dr. Joann Halpern will address these questions and cover the following topics:

- Working Outside of Your Comfort Zone,
- Fixed Mindsets vs. Growth Mindsets
- Developing a Global Network
- Building Your Personal Board of Directors
- Using international experience to enhance your career

DR. JOANN HALPERN

Dr. Joann Halpern is the director of the Hasso Plattner Institute, New York and an adjunct professor in the Department of Applied Statistics, Social Science and Humanities at New York University. She was the founding director of the German Center for Research and Innovation (GCRI), which was created as a cornerstone of the German government's initiative to internationalize science and research.

In addition to teaching and administrative assignments at universities in the United States and Germany, Dr. Halpern co-founded Knowledge Transfer Beyond Boundaries, an NGO with projects in Cameroon, Nigeria, Yemen, and Antigua.

She received her B.A. from Dartmouth College, her M.A. from Harvard University, and her Ph.D. from New York University. She is a recipient of the Harvard University Award for Distinction in Teaching as well as scholarships and fellowships from the Fulbright Association, German Academic Exchange Service, Robert Bosch Foundation, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. Dr. Halpern serves on the advisory boards of the German Center for Research and Innovation, Technical University of Dortmund, Charité Entrepreneurship Summit, University Alliance Ruhr, and the External Advisory Board of the Tandon Institute for Invention, Innovation, and Entrepreneurship.
